

I Can Choose the Right

Teach your child how they have their own agency to make choices, and encourage them to always choose the right!

Purpose

In these latter days, life can be hard. Satan is working harder than ever to take us off the strait and narrow, and he is targeting younger and younger people. Learning to Choose the Right at an early age can help your child make good decisions for the rest of their lives!

“Moral discipline is the consistent exercise of agency to choose the right because it is right, even when it is hard” ~ D Todd Christofferson

Opening Prayer

Scripture ~ Open Scriptures to Joshua 24:15 and read. To reinforce the idea that goes with the lesson you can say, "You can choose what you want to do."

Scripture Story ~ Pre-existence Story

Before we lived in this life, we lived with Heavenly Father.

Heavenly Father loved us so he wanted someone to help us return to him

Jesus had a plan that could help us.

In His plan we get to choose what we want to do in this life.

Activity ~ Learning to Choose!

Give your child some choices to make, and let them choose for themselves. It can be something very simple, like do they want a green crayon or a red crayon to color with. Let them choose which snack they want to eat. Which book they want to read. Children, even young children love to make choices and have independence. Give it to them! If they have the opportunity for independence when they are younger, they have a better chance of learning to make good decisions.
