

Love Birds

Volume 5

Scholars!

First Week:

Go to a used bookstore and find a book that looks interesting to both of you! It can be anything from a cook book, a book you have always wanted to buy, or an old joke book! Whichever book you pick spend an hour or two reading it together! Reading a book together is really fun on a picnic blanket at a park!

In-Between Weeks :

Husband ~ Pick out a talk you especially liked from the last general conference. Read it together and lead a discussion of why you especially liked that talk.

Wife ~ Pick out a favorite scripture you have. Read it and then explain why you like it so much! If you feeling adventurous look up the recipe for scripture cookies and enjoy making them!

Friend Week :

Invite another couple or two to go with you to a book store! Everyone gets to pick out their favorite book they had when they were a child. Then they get to read it to everyone else! No need to buy the books, you can just read to everyone in the store! Head back to your house afterwards for a yummy treat!
